OUR GRANT AWARDS

Message from the CEO and Board Chair

One hundred years ago, in Cleveland Ohio, the first community foundation was established, giving rise to a new philanthropy, a new way of participating in community and a new vision for the future. Today, the Brown County Community Foundation (BCCF) is one of more than 700 community foundations across the United States that invite everyday people with a vision and a passion for community to create something together: for good, forever.

Community foundations are designed to build endowment funds that benefit the community forever and help create personal legacies. When you contribute to any of the funds in the endowment managed by the BCCF, your gift is invested over time. Earnings from your fund are used to make grants addressing community needs. Your gift-and all future earnings from your gift-is a permanent source of community capital, helping to do good work today and in the future. Since being established in 1993 the BCCF has made cumulative grants of more than $10M.

The BCCF is a local nonprofit organization providing donors a simple, powerful and highly personal approach to giving. These invested funds allow the BCCF to provide positive community impact through effective granting. Another surprising, and not unusual aspect for all nonprofits, is the fact the much of the important work is completed by volunteers. The BCCF has the great privilege and benefit of the financial stewardship and oversight over organizational integrity thanks to an all volunteer Board of Trustees. Their effective management and fiduciary values and standards help the BCCF be the catalyst for ever-increasing levels of philanthropic activity in Brown County.

The BCCF is able to deliver positive community impact through effective grant making to our local nonprofit organizations and by awarding scholarships to our graduates. These decisions as well as organizational governance, board and committee nominations, financial decision and marketing strategies are made by dedicated volunteer committee members as well. Without volunteer power the community foundation would not be able to successfully address so many areas of shared concern.

This same volunteer power is in evidence in all of the nonprofit organizations we partner with through our collaborative community projects. These volunteers are the engine behind many of the innovative solutions and programs that make this a great place to live, to work and to play. These volunteers are an integral component and indicator of the health of our community, demonstrate the level of energy and passion local citizens are willing to offer to the organizations they value and the results of their work enhances our quality of life.

Our mission is to "be a collaborative leader for positive impact in the Brown County Community by building on the spirit of philanthropy. " It is the collective wisdom, energy and joyous optimism of our many volunteer Trustees and committee members, both current and emeritus, that have made the Brown County Community Foundation the positive community force that it is and that it will always be.

~Larry Pejeau, CEO & Michael Laros, BOT Chair

Celebrating Volunteerism

With this year's Report to the Community theme of Celebrating Volunteerism there is probably no organization that utilizes volunteers more effectively than Habitat for Humanity. Brown County Habitat for Humanity built their 17th home in 2013 and the Brown County Community Foundation was proud to be one of the major sponsors with a Cummins Match grant of $4,375.00 for the purchase of the building lot.

Building one home per year with an all volunteer work force is a serious challenge. The BCCF can always be confident that a partnership with this organization will address an important community need while providing a truly worthwhile volunteer experience. Thank you Brown County Habitat for Humanity for changing the life of one family and our community of volunteers one home at a time.

Community Service Award Honoring John D. Rudd

In 2003, the Board of Trustees of the Brown County Community Foundation established the Community Service Award in honor of John Rudd's devotion and demonstrated broad based service to his native county. This award annually honors an individual (or individuals) who have demonstrated the commitment, accomplishment, and spirit of John D. Rudd. In acknowledgement of his remarkable record of service, Mr. Rudd was the first recipient of this award. The 2013 award was given in honor of the many contributions of Donna Ormiston

Donna and her husband moved to Brown County in 1991. Donna is a retired educator and has been very active in this community. One outstanding aspect of Donna's volunteering is consistency and longevity in addition to her well deserved reputation for doing more than her fair share. Donna has volunteered and demonstrated leadership in her roles with the Brown County Community Foundation and the Brown County Partnership. As a member of Rotary she and her husband volunteer regularly at Mother's Cupboard Community Kitchen, she participates in the "I like Me" book reading to local kindergartners and is a leader of organizing the children's games at the Spring Blossom Parade.

Donna is a past director and board member of the Brown County Literacy Coalition; she is an active volunteer tutor for the organization and is always willing to assist with fundraising and community projects. Donna has volunteered at the Brown County Career Resource Center and has been a past steering committee member as well as the Chairperson. Donna is a member of the Brown County Retired Teachers' Association and a member of the Brown County Literacy Club.

Donna is a master gardener and has volunteered her expertise and energy at the Brown County Public Library. She initiated and continues to lead the Ravine Project to rid the area behind the library of invasive plants. She maintains the gardens surrounding the library and leads fundraising projects such as the spring plant sale to support the Ravine Project. Donna is a board member of the Brown County Native Woodlands project as well as a supporting member of the Sycamore Land Trust and The Nature Conservancy.

Donna is a member of the Nashville United Methodist Church and volunteers as a member of the Choir and as a fundraiser for the annual Fall Fair. Donna's volunteering efforts have been and continue to be an invaluable asset to whatever organization she decides to devote her energy. She is always willing to tackle whatever project or challenge that arises and does so with a wonderful sense of humor and subtle leadership skills. Brown County is a better place to live, to work and to play thanks to the countless hours of service by volunteers like Donna. We honor Donna Ormiston's devotion and demonstrated service to Brown County with the 2013 John D. Rudd Community Service Award.

2013 Scholarships

Lilly Endowment Community Scholar

Connor Guingrich (right) received a full four-year scholarship to any Indiana college of his choice. This scholarship was given by the Lilly Endowment Community Scholarship Program through the Brown County Community Foundation.

Since 1998, Brown County Community Foundation has had the privilege of awarding Lilly Endowment Community Scholarships to 31 Brown County High School Graduates. This annual scholarship will pay full four-year tuition and $900 a year for books and equipment to the Indiana public or private college of their choice. The scholarships are the result of a statewide Lilly Endowment initiative to help Indiana students reach higher levels of education. Indiana ranks among the lowest states in the percentage of residents over the age of 25 with a bachelor's degree. During the first 15 years of the program, 3,629 students have received Lilly Endowment Community Scholarships statewide. Those scholars are attending 45 different Indiana colleges.

Planned Giving

Achieve the greatest good with a creative giving solution designed around you.

OUTRIGHT GIFT. Make a gift today with cash, stocks, bonds or other assets to your community foundation. Your charitable gift may qualify for attractive tax advantages.

BEQUEST BY WILL. Establish a fund in your name (or in the name of your family) by designating a gift or portion of your estate to your community foundation. In some cases, receive a substantial reduction in federal gift and estate taxes.

REAL ESTATE. Turn property gains into community impact. The value of your real estate may exceed that of any other asset you own. Use it to establish or contribute to a community foundation fund; you can fulfill charitable interests and receive tax benefits.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS. Choose our community over taxes. Naming the community foundation as a beneficiary of your retirement account (401(k) or IRA) is an easy way to make a significant, lasting gift that may not be possible during your lifetime. It's easy; no need to modify your will or estate plan.

LIFE INSURANCE. Make community the full or partial beneficiary of a life insurance policy. It's a simple way to make a major gift back to the community that you call home, with possible tax benefits during your lifetime.

CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITY. Give cash or property to your community foundation now, get immediate tax benefits and ensure that you or a loved one receive fixed income payments for life.

CHARITABLE TRUSTS. Place cash or property in a Charitable Remainder Trust that pays income to you or a loved one for life. After your death, the balance transfers to the community foundation for a charitable purpose you have selected. You receive income tax benefits the year you establish your trust. Or establish a Charitable Lead Trust that pays a fixed amount to the community foundation for a number of years. After this period, trust assets transfer to the beneficiaries you name. In some cases, this arrangement reduces your federal gift and estate taxes.

If you would like to leave a legacy and become a member of the Del Newkirk Society, contact the Brown County Community Foundation for more information.

Del Newkirk Society

In 2001, the Brown County Community Foundation Board of Trustees established The Del Newkirk Society. With great affection and appreciation, it was named in honor of one of its founders and a former Executive Director, Mr. Del Newkirk. The Del Newkirk Society has been established to recognize those who, like Del, wish to remember the Brown County Community Foundation and ensure its mission continues in perpetuity. Each member of the society has named the Brown County Community Foundation in their planned gifts.

2013 Grants

During the 2013 competitive grant cycle, and Cummins matching grant cycle the Foundation distributed $70,509.01. Nineteen organizations received full or partial funding.

An Investment in the Community . . . The Brown County Community Foundation strives to ensure that its grantmaking meets donors' charitable interests and addresses the community's changing needs. Grants are viewed as investments in the community that should be made wisely and fairly. Effective grantmaking requires good working relationships with nonprofit agencies. Grant recipients are the Foundation's partners. Their ideas and capabilities determine the impact of grant investments. The Foundation gives priority to programs having measurable outcomes. Grantmaking fields of interest include the areas of arts and culture, education, environment, human services, public health and other charitable purposes. Grants are made only to organizations whose intent is for charitable purposes. Most grants are made to nonprofit organizations that are classified as tax-exempt Section 501(c)(3) public charities. The Foundation operates without discrimination as to age, race, faith, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, disability or financial status in the consideration of grant requests. It will award grants only to organizations operating without discrimination. Grant seekers are encouraged to contact the Foundation for specific grant guidelines and application procedures. Competitive grant requests are reviewed by the Grants Committee and presented to the Board of Trustees for approval.

ENDOWMENT

Your gift can grow and benefit community forever.

GIVE TO THE FUTURE OF BROWN COUNTY You've lived here. You've worked here. You are part of this community's past and present. By creating an endowment fund with the community foundation, you can invest in this community's future.

HOW IT WORKS:

- Choose to endow your gift of $5000 ($25,000 for endowed scholarships) to the community foundation—ask us about options for making gifts over time that add up to this minimum amount.
- The principal of your fund is never spent, and it can grow over time to generate an increasing stream of funding devoted to your interest areas and this community.
- Earnings are used to make grants that meet community needs. Your gift—and all future income from your gift—is a permanent source of community funding that makes good works possible, forever.

A lasting contribution

The very first endowed scholarship at the BCCF was the Larry C. Banks Bronze Star Memorial Scholarship. This scholarship honors the only Brown County soldier to become KIA in the war in Viet Nam. Started by some of his classmates and fellow veterans, Michael O'Hara, Gus Schroeder, George Miller and Lee Maggard this scholarship has been awarded to a local high school graduate every year since 1994.

The BCCF believes in the value of post secondary education for the benefit of the individual and the community. Contact a BCCF staff member to learn more about establishing or donating to a scholarship fund at the Brown County Community Foundation.

Vol .un.teeer, noun

1. A person who voluntarily offers himself or herself for a service or undertaking.
2. A person who performs a service willingly and without pay.

Volunteering is generally considered an altruistic activity and is intended to promote goodness or improve human quality of life. There is no financial gain involved; however, those that volunteer usually feel that the activity can produce a feeling of self-worth and respect. The word volunteer was first recorded in 1630 to describe "one who offers himself for community service in a military context; a volunteer army." In the 19th century Clara Barton and her team of volunteers began providing aid to servicemen. Barton founded the American Red Cross in 1881 and began mobilizing volunteers for disaster relief operations after the Johnstown Flood in 1889.

In the 20th and 21st century The Salvation Army organized a number of volunteering programs to work with disadvantaged people. In the 21st century this tradition continued with Rotary International, Kiwanis International and Lions Club International. Volunteering has a long history of improving schools, developing countries, our environment, emergency services and corporations to name a few causes of shared concern. With the arrival of the internet one can now be a virtual volunteer.

In Brown County the tradition of volunteerism is strong and many of our community assets would not be available without the time, talent and treasure of our community of volunteers. The Brown County Community Foundation is celebrating these community members at this year's annual meeting in two ways. First, we are hosting a Volunteer Fair for local non profits in conjunction with our meeting to allow interested citizens to learn more about their mission, their volunteer opportunities and hopefully to learn the joy of volunteering. Secondly, the BCCF will be awarding grants of $500 in the name of folks that you probably know that have been nominated by a local not for profit as their volunteer of the year. Their stories and contributions are all different but they all have some common traits; they are passionate about the cause or organization they support and they are committed to improving the quality of life of our community. We are a better community because of their volunteerism.

Optimized Community Impact

The Brown County Community Foundation provides grants to effective organizations and together we deliver positive community impact.

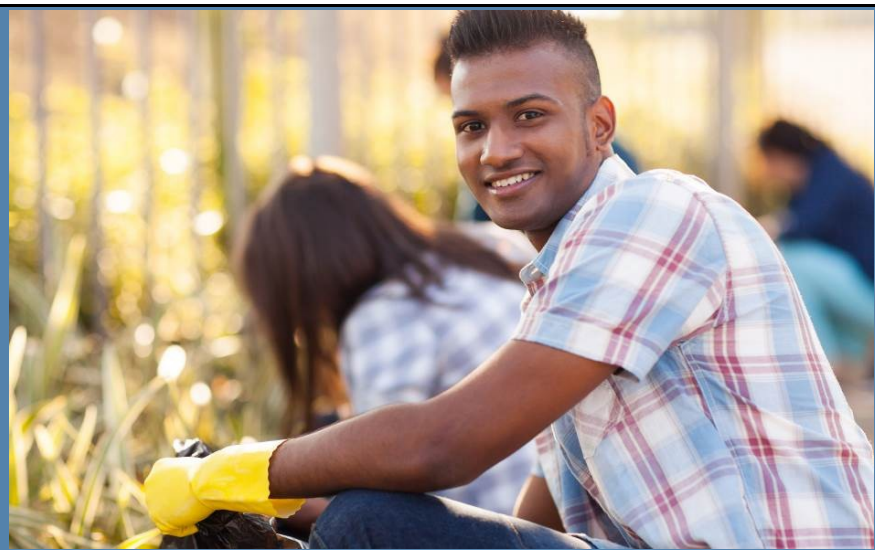

For 55 years the Brown County Historical Society has carried on its mission to collect, preserve and exhibit the history of Brown County, Indiana, for the education of students, members and the general public. Impressively, during all of this time they have operated with almost 100% volunteer energy. In 2007 the Historical Society began to relocate to an ideal site next to the Pioneer Village in the heart of Nashville. Following the sale of their headquarters since 1973, a remodeled former bowling alley, the Society started putting a foundation under its dream for a new History Center. The new Center will house the Bailey/Reeve Historical Archives, the Society Office; provide space for the monthly dinner meetings and Pioneer Women workshops. Brown County has a marrow-deep pride in its natural beauty, wildlife, its stories, musical arts, tales and lore that compose its traditions and the new Center will be a worthy meeting place to share all of this with history enthusiasts from near and afar.

The Brown County Community Foundation has awarded many grants to support the Brown County Historical Society and these grants have delivered positive impact to the community from both an educational and economic development perspective. We are proud to support their current construction effort with a Cummins Match grant for $7500. These funds were utilized, in partnership with funds from the Nature Conservancy, to dismantle a historic log cabin located on Freeman Ridge Road and move the logs to the construction site. These logs will become the walls of the Museum Log Room with a large stone fireplace for gatherings and special events that will be named in honor of Fred and Mary Jane Lorenz. This will truly be a place where Brown County's treasures will be preserved and beautifully displayed while current history is made.

CHARITABLE FUNDS

Great giving options. Choose the one that is right for you.

UNRESTRICTED FUNDS. Your gift is highly flexible and available to meet the breadth of community needs—including future needs that may not yet be imagined. Your community foundation’s program experts evaluate all aspects of community wellbeing—arts and culture, economic development, education, environment, health and human services, neighborhood revitalization and more. Unrestricted gifts empower us to make strategic grants, where need and opportunity are greatest.

FIELD OF INTEREST FUNDS. Focus your gift on an important area of community life, such as enriching education, safeguarding health, strengthening families, improving neighborhoods, cultivating arts or protecting the environment. You identify your personal interest when making your gift; our board awards grants to community organizations and programs that are making a difference in the area you select.

DONOR ADVISED FUNDS. Enjoy ongoing involvement. When you establish a Donor Advised Fund, you work with our professional program staff to identify possible grants that may benefit a variety of causes and organizations important to you. Your recommendations are submitted to our local board for approval, and grants are distributed in the name of your fund.

DESIGNATED FUNDS. Direct your charitable gift to benefit a specific nonprofit organization or purpose. Your gift can provide an ongoing funding stream for a senior center, museum or virtually any nonprofit charitable organization. Nonprofit organizations may also begin their own Agency Endowments through the community foundation, using our capabilities to accept complex gifts and to build a lasting endowment.

SCHOLARSHIPS. Invest in your community’s future and show students you care, all with the guidance and personal services of your community foundation. You determine the criteria students must meet to receive the scholarship you establish. With your assistance, students achieve their academic and career-oriented goals—from preschool to postgraduate work.

SUPPORTING ORGANIZATIONS. Use your gift to establish an excellent alternative to a private foundation—with only a fraction of the administrative responsibilities. You select some of the board members, maintain personal involvement, and support the causes and organizations you care about while enjoying the favorable tax treatment of a public charity. Leave investment management, startup costs, grant administration and reporting to the community foundation.
